

COVID-19 update

Welcome back to the office, please review our office hours as they may change. Coming into the office will be as close to business as normal as possible. We are taking all precautions outlined by the Alberta Dental Association and Alberta Public Health to ensure you will be safe, healthy and comfortable when you come into the office. We will look forward to seeing you!